

Property and Environmental Law Section

NOMINATION FORM FOR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Why join the Executive? Being a member of the Property and Environmental Law Section's Executive Committee provides you with a unique opportunity to be actively involved in overseeing law reform activities and events organised by the Property and Environmental Law Section.

What is involved in being a member of the Executive? All members of the Property and Environmental Law Section are eligible to nominate to join the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee oversees the work of the Section and its sub-committees. The Chairs of sub-committees sit on and report to the Executive Committee. Active members of the Property and Environmental Law Section are also encouraged to join the Executive Committee.

How do I nominate? Members of the Property and Environmental Law Section wishing to nominate to serve on the Executive Committee must complete and send this nomination form by email to Nick D'Arcy at ndarcy@liv.asn.au by 5:00pm on 26th November 2020.

Name

Firm

Address

DX

Phone

Email

1. I am a current member of the:

Law Institute of Victoria (LIV); and

Property and Environmental Law Section

2. Year of admission to membership of the LIV: _____

3. Year of admission to practice: _____

4. Details of current membership of Property and Environmental Law Section sub-committees and/or working groups

5. Details of current membership of other LIV Sections and sub-committees

6. Areas of interest in issues concerning the Property and Environmental Law Section

7. Summary of Qualifications and Statement of Positions (additional information/supporting documents may be attached)

I consent to my name and contact details (email address) being provided to other Committee members in the event that I am elected to the Executive Committee of the Property and Environmental Law Section.

Signed _____

Dated _____